

The Federal Executive Institute

Upcoming 2010 Programs

Center for Global Leadership Series– Leadership for a Global Society

August 2-6, 2010 Charlottesville, VA

Michael Rawlings

In this program offered by the Federal Executive Institute (FEI), you will assess the role of the United States in the world and explore the institutional and policy framework that supports our interactions with other countries. You will focus on best practices in dealing with issues having international implications and the negotiation and teamwork skills that have proven to be the most effective in global interactions.

SES Leadership Horizons Series– Women and Leadership: A Wilderness Experience

August 16-18, 2010 Charlottesville, VA

Gail Funke

This program is designed for women who are members of the Senior Executive Service and is based on the premise that experiencing and studying survival in extreme situations can inform your leadership process and prepare you for coping with unknown or "crisis" situations in your workplace.

Public Sector Leadership: Vision, Values, and Vital Strategies

September 12-17, 2010 San Diego, CA

Pete Ronayne

Leading effectively in the public sector is a challenge that requires a full array of flexible and up-to-date strategies for success. This rigorous program will provide you with a powerful set of new approaches for understanding and leading change in the Federal Government. It is the perfect opportunity for you to refine your personal vision of public service, your organization's future and your critical role in leading public sector change.

SES Leadership Horizons Series– The Executive Zenith

September 22-24, 2010 US Military Academy, West Point, NY

PJ Rooney

The complex demands on today's American public servants make achieving high levels of leadership performance a serious challenge. Designed for Senior Federal leaders, this three-day program helps you achieve personal and professional excellence by focusing on and developing your attitude, mental acuity, motivation and commitment. Jointly presented by FEI and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point's Center for Enhanced Performance, this program will help you explore and practice the intangible but indispensable mental skills that underline peak human performance: confidence despite setbacks; concentration amidst distractions; and composure under stress.

SES Leadership Horizons Series– A Cosmic Experience for Executives

October 24-29, 2010 US Space and Rocket Center, Huntsville, AL

Brian Bell

Having the confidence to perform under pressure, think through complex problems, take decisive action and rally your team toward a common goal are all traits of extraordinary leaders. This one-of-a-kind program utilizes multifaceted simulations, individual and group activities and real-time situational analysis to evaluate your leadership skills, as it builds on a solid foundation of human space flight experience and over 40 years of FEI knowledge. Located at U.S. Space and Rocket Center in Huntsville Alabama, this multi-day learning experience will challenge the boundaries of your leadership ability.

REGISTER TODAY

FEI programs are open to GS - 15 and SES executives. The SES Leadership Horizons programs are open to SES and high-potential GS-15 executives who are competing for SES positions or who are being developed by their agencies as part of a succession planning program.

Information:

For information about a specific program, please contact the faculty member listed below the course information or see <http://www.leadership.opm.gov>

Register:

To register for one of these programs, please call Cynthia Grantham at 304-870-8021.

